Opportunities

International Professionals: Perform roles which require skills and expertise that must be recruited internationally. An advanced university degree may be required.

National Offices: Are recruited locally and perform professional level functions for which expertise can be found locally. National officers are nationals of the country in which they are serving and their functions have a national context.

General Service Staff: Are recruited locally from the area in which a particular office is located, and perform support and clerical functions.

Consultants: Provide specialised non-staff related functions required by UNFPA on a short-term or intermittent basis to meet a particular requirement.

Temporary Appointments: Are hired internationally and locally for limited periods to perform staff functions for which there is no ongoing, long-term need.

Junior Programme Officers: A programme that provides young professionals pursuing a career in development with the opportunity to gain hands-on experience.

Internships: Interns are matched with the needs of the organisation. Applicants should be enrolled in a degree programme or in a similar educational programme. Applicants must have written and spoken proficiency in English. Internships are available year round.

“UNFPA provides a work environment that reflects the values of gender equality, teamwork, respect for diversity in all forms, integrity and a healthy balance of work and life. We are committed to maintaining our balanced gender distribution and therefore encourage women to apply. UNFPA promotes equal opportunities for all including persons with disabilities.”

View our vacancies and apply at www.unfpa.org/jobs

At UNFPA, you will work on challenging and rewarding initiatives with a talented, diverse team who are on the ground.
UNFPA is looking for motivated and committed persons with a strong belief in the purpose and mandates of the United Nations who are willing to dedicate themselves to an international career. We offer interesting and challenging work, learning opportunities, and a diverse environment where staff feel valued and respected.

We are recruiting for profiles with technical experience in Gender Based Violence, Reproductive Health, Adolescence and Youth, Gender and Human Rights, Population and Development, Resource Mobilisation, and Humanitarian Response. We are also looking for top operational talent in the areas of Human Resources, Finance, IT, Procurement and Programme Management.

UNFPA is the lead UN agency for delivering a world where every pregnancy is wanted, every birth is safe, and every young person's potential is fulfilled.

“We want to build an organisation where talent is nurtured and high performance rewarded; where organisational design and team behaviour promotes high motivation, innovation and results-orientation; and where every manager makes ‘people management’ a top priority.”

- Dr. Babatunde Osotimehin
  Executive Director, UNFPA

UNFPA expands the possibilities for women and young people to lead healthy and productive lives. See more at www.unfpa.org